HANDS ON WORKSHOPS

Designed for Schools & Organised Groups

Be inspired by some up-front inspection great art or great history! Using the current exhibitions within either the Dubbo Regional Gallery - The Armati Bequest or the Dubbo Regional Museum, students will explore issues, techniques and themes relevant to their field of study. These workshops give students the chance to interpret what they see in a hands on fashion that is creative, inspirational and meaningful. A two hour workshop at $12 per student - all age groups and stages catered for, includes a guided tour, professional instruction by a local artist or museum educators, and all supplies.

Teachers/carers are expected to assist tutor in ensuring students stay on task.

Please bring paint shirts and refreshments.

Cost: $12 per student - 2 hour workshop
